CALLED A DRAW
Hanlon Put Up a Stiff Battle With Young
Corbett for Championship

After twenty rounds of the fastest fighting over seen In San Francisco. Referee declared the bout between Young Corbett of Denver and Eddie Hanlon of San Francisco a draw. Young Corbett clearly demonstrated that he has not gone back as some sporting writers would have the public believe. Hanlon also showed that the high opinion in which he has been held by Californian boxing enthusiasts has been justified. The contest from a spectacular standpoint was the best ever witnessed on the coast, both men putting up a clean, hard, scientific contest.

Round 1

Hanlon was the first to lead but was short. Corbett pranced about and uppercut Hanlon lightly with his right. Hanlon assumed a crouching position and was well guarded Corbett was unable to penetrate it. Corbett finally put in a light right to the face. Eddie put his left to head and Corbett retaliated with right to head. Eddie neatly blocked a left uppercut. He tried twice with left for face, but Corbett backed out of harms way. Corbett brought his left to the ear, but not with much force.

Hanlon drove a straight left to head and in a mix-up sent his right and left to face. As the gong sounded Hanlon drove his left and right hard to body and head. The champion went to his corner with a worried look.

Round 2.

Hanlon led for body but was short. Corbett tried with right and left for the body but was blocked. Hanlon kept his face well protected. Corbett planted his right hard to the stomach and Hanlon hooked him to body with left. Corbett sent his right to body and they clinched. Hanlon drove his right twice to the kidneys. Hanlon sent a straight left to the body and Corbett countered with right to body. Corbett hooked right to body and they clinched. Hanlon forced the fighting and had an almost impregnable defense.

Round 3.

Hanlon jolted Corbett with left to body and Corbett sent right uppercut to the jaw. Corbett tried right uppercut for the jaw. In a mix up Hanlon drove right and left to body and followed it up with right and left to jaw. Hanlon followed Corbett to ropes and planted half a dozen vicious rights and lefts to the jaw and the champion was dazed, Corbett went to the ropes and Hanlon planted his right hard to the jaw and the champion clung to avoid punishment. Hanlon straightened the champion out and employed rights and lefts to the face as the gong rang. Corbett went to his corner in a semi-groggy condition, Hanlon pressing the fighting.

Round 4

Hanlon sent in a hard right to kidneys and in a mix-up put a light left to face. Corbett got in a right to the face. Hanlon sent a straight left to the face and Corbett blocked a wicked right for the stomach. They mixed it considerably. Hanlon crossed heavily with right to jaw and followed it up with rights to the kidneys. Corbett was clinging to Hanlon as the gong sounded.

Round 5.

After several attempts Corbett sent a right swing to the head and in a mix-up put his left to the body. Hanlon sent his left to the body and right to the head. Corbett retaliated in a similar manner. Eddie jabbed the champion but Corbett came back with right to the eye. Corbett tried twice with left for the face and in a vicious exchange both landed hard right and left to the face. Corbett came out of the volley by sending hard right to Eddie's jaw and the gong rang.

Corbett started in on the aggressive and put his right to the face. After a hard exchange Eddie drove his right to the face and clinched. Corbett drove Hanlon's headback with a wicked uppercut. Eddie brought his left to the kidneys. Corbett planted his right and left to the face hard and brought the blood from the Californian's nose. This was Corbett's round.

Round 7.

Corbett sent his right to the jaw and then went into a mix-up. Corbett put a stiff right to the jaw and Eddie came back with a left to the body. Corbett sent in three rights to the body. Both men were fighting hard. In a fierce mix-up both exchanged severe blows and Hanlon was raining rights and lefts on Corbett face when the gong sounded.

Round 8

Hanlon put his right to the kidneys and Corbett came back with left to body. Hanlon sent a hard right to the body but the champion came back with his famous uppercut on the jaw. Hanlon put hard right to the kidneys, then followed with left short arm to the body and a similar left to face. Eddie landed two rights and a left to jaw in quick succession. Corbett fought hard. At the conclusion of the round Hanlon sent in two rights to the jaw. Hanlon's round.

Round 10.

Corbett tried with right to head and Hanlon came back with two rights and lefts to jaw. Hanlon swung twice to head with left and in a mix up put his right and left to jaw. Corbett clinched to avoid punishment. Eddie sent in a right to body and followed with a rain of rights and lefts to the same place. Corbett was bleeding badly but fought back gamely. Hanlon apparently was having all the best of it and the gong saved Corbett.

The excitement was so intense that the bell was not heard.

Round 11.

Hanlon started in to beat his man to the mat but Corbett came back gamely. He landed a right on the jaw and left to the face but his blows were weak. Corbett kept in well and tried to regain his strength. Hanlon sent right and left to stomach and then a left to the jaw. But Corbett came back with a stiff right uppercut to jaw. Corbett nursed himself carefully in this round and let Hanlon do all the fighting.

Round .12

Corbett sent in two vicious rights to the stomach and then followed it with another to the same place. Corbett crossed with right over the eye and followed it with another to same place. Eddie whipped right hard to the head. Hanlon was not so fresh. This was Corbett's round.

Round 13.

Corbett sent straight right to stomach and received in return a light jab in the face. Corbett again worked his right uppercut hard to jaw and they clinched. Hanlon sent a right to stomach that made Corbett wince and then put left to the Kidneys. Hanlon landed right and left lightly to jaw but as the bell sounded Corbett sent in a stiff right to the face.

Round 14

Corbett went in at once with right to head, and then a short right arm to jaw was followed by a straight right to the same place. Eddie sent in several lefts and rights to body and Corbett fought back viciously but did not land. Hanlon came back like a fiend and as the bell sounded nearly put the champion out of business by a succession of rights and lefts to face.

Round 15

Corbett waded in with right and was blocked, and Hanlon then forced the fighting. Three hard uppercuts forced Corbett to clinch to avoid punishment. Hanlon swung right to jaw and Corbett retaliated with left to head. A moment later Hanlon rained blow after blow on the champion and he was very tired when the gong sounded.

Round 16.

Corbett seemed much refreshed after his respite, but Hanlon started in to rush matters and this round was practically a repetition of the last. The bell again came to the aid of the champion.

Round 17.

Corbett uppercut Hanlon with right to jaw and Hanlon sent Corbett back with left to the face. Corbett then got in right to jaw and followed with a right swing to the head. Twice more he sent rights to the face and then slipped and fell to the floor. As he got up Hanlon put in left and right to jaw. Corbett put left uppercut to jaw but Hanlon responded with a hard right to kidneys. Hanlon blocked two right uppercuts to head and went with right and left to body.

Round 18

Corbett rushed in with left to face. Hanlon landed three rights to face and jaw and Corbett clinched again to avoid punishment. Hanlon forced Corbett to the ropes with right and lefts to face, the champion receiving terrific punishment. Hanlon sent straight left to face and then uppercut Corbett to jaw with right. Corbett sent in hard right and Hanlon sent the champion to the floor with a succession of blows to the face and body. Hanlon kept up the work until the sound of the gong, which saved the champion from defeat.

Round 19

Corbett came up refreshed and sent right to jaw, but received a right and left on the jaw in return. Hanlon followed with a straight left hard to face. Corbett fought back strongly but most of the blows lacked force. Eddie sent right to body and Corbett went in with right and left swings to head. Hanlon sent the champion back with rights and lefts to body and the gong was a welcome sound to Corbett.

Round 20.

Corbett went at it hammer and tongs but his blows lacked force. Hanlon put his left to the jaw and two rights to body in a mix-up. But Corbett came back with right and then crossed to the jaw and followed it up with right to head and Hanlon slipped to the floor. Corbett landed left swing to head and Hanlon almost slipped to his knees. Corbett fought fast and furiously, trying vainly to reach the Californian. In a mix-up he sent in several rights and lefts to body, but Hanlon came back at him and forced him to the ropes.
